

G20 YOUNG ENTREPRENEURS' ALLIANCE

SUMMIT 2023 | NEW DELHI, INDIA

JUL 13 - 15, 2023 TAJ PALACE

'Hum' is our credo for the G20 India Summit 2023.

Hum in Hindi means togetherness. Hum stands for humanity. Symbolic of interdependence, in global languages it connotes a universal chant, resonating in unison.

As the Young Entrepreneurs Alliance, we want to celebrate this power of oneness, so that together, we can usher in positive transformation, peaceful co-existence and harmony. Beyond individuality is all of humanity.

The new dynamic is 'hum'- together we are one!

INNOVFEST 23 EXPO

The festival served as a platform to showcase the astounding achievements of Indian innovation, marking a new era of growth and progress. With over 530 delegates from more than 24 countries in attendance, it was a truly international gathering of minds.

The festival featured a dazzling array of made-in-India innovations that left the delegates in awe. From Pravaig, the pioneering electric car company that got an investment of Inr 100 Cr+, to ePlane's cutting-edge eVTOL plane, Agnikul's groundbreaking 3d printed rocket engine, and BotLabs' swarm drones, the innovations on display exemplified India's growing prowess in the field.

EyeROV's underwater vehicle, Swift's revolutionary medicine robot, Saksham's smart plumbing system, and Ace Robotics' industrial robotic arm were among the standout innovations that captured the attention and admiration of the global audience

In addition to showcasing Indian ingenuity, the festival also provided a platform for Invest Saudi and NEOM to present their bold vision and ongoing progress, demonstrating the collaborative spirit of innovation that transcends borders. Ministry of Minority Affairs, Ministry of Women and Child, Government of India, Smt. Smriti Zubin Irani invited one of the innovations to join at the G20.

The Innovation Festival at InnovFest served as a powerful testament to the limitless potential of Indian innovation and its openness to the world. It was a resounding invitation for global stakeholders to participate in and contribute to the remarkable growth story unfolding in India.

We extend our deepest gratitude to all the participating companies, whose groundbreaking work continues to push the boundaries of what is possible. Together, we are forging a future where innovation knows no bounds and where India stands at the forefront of transformative change.

STARTUP DUEL COMPETITION

The G20 Young Entrepreneurs' Alliance Summit 2023, India organized a one of a kind, Startup Duel competition inviting early stage startups from across the globe to participate in a battle for cash prize, funding opportunities and network with stalwarts from the startup ecosystem.

The Duel was scheduled at 10 AM on the second day of the Summit, i.e 15th July 2023. The Startups engaged with each other in the presence of 530 delegates from 24 countries and the top 3 winners were chosen by the international jury of experts.

The registration process started 3 months back and over 500+ startups inquired and registered for the competition. A total of 40 startups were selected through a stringent evaluation process with the following 8 parameters in the evaluation framework.

- Innovation and Uniqueness
- Market Potential
- Business Model
- Team Strength
- Execution & Traction
- Scalability & Growth Potential
- Financial Viability
- Presentation and Pitch

Out of the 40 virtual pitches in the span of 1 week, 8 startups were selected and invited to be part of the on-stage duel. Out of the 8 startups, top 3 were selected by the jury and audience and awarded a cash prize of US $50,000 along with others perks and benefits. For the first position, it was a tie between Picnic Kiosk & Greensole and therefore both were winners and the runner up was Spacefields.

In addition to the prize money and branding exposure, the startup founders also got the chance to engage in one-on-one networking with a diverse group of delegates, such as entrepreneurs, investors, social innovators, and political figures. This networking allows them to delve deeper into details and seek additional assistance, whether it be through mentorship or financial backing.

The startups also caught eye of the investors who were part of the summit and all the 8 startups got into the first level of discussions with the potential investors and VCs. One of the AgriTech startups also got their first pilot project in collaboration with one of the investors. The effort was supported by partners - Startup India, LetsVenture, Zoho for Startups and USPI Consulting.

BILATERALS AT THE SUMMIT - 7 COUNTRIES

An International Bilateral was designed at the summit to expedite areas of mutual interest and collaboration between the countries. The discussion was moderated by the Indian leadership and engaged 7 nations namely, Saudi Arabia, Italy, Canada, Nepal, Thailand, Sri Lanka and Mexico.

These interactions focused on fostering entrepreneurship, innovation, and business opportunities, allowing young entrepreneurs to share ideas, exchange knowledge, and create partnerships across borders. The Bilateral engagements between the countries can take various forms, such as:

- International Networking Meet-ups: To provide platforms for young entrepreneurs from different countries to meet, connect, and explore potential collaborations.
- International Startup Competitions: Bilateral startup competitions encourage young entrepreneurs to pitch their innovative ideas and projects, providing exposure and potential funding opportunities.
- Cross-Border Investments: Young entrepreneurs may seek investment or funding from counterparts in other countries to scale their ventures and explore new markets.
- Joint Ventures: Bilateral partnerships can lead to joint ventures, where young entrepreneurs from two countries collaborate on a specific project or business endeavor.
- Knowledge Sharing: Young entrepreneurs can share best practices in the host country and industry insights with each other, fostering a culture of learning and innovation.

By promoting the bilateral interactions, young entrepreneurs can leverage the energy and creativity of their youth to drive economic growth, job creation, and innovation on a global level. These collaborations also contribute to building stronger diplomatic ties and cultural understanding between nations.

BRIGHTSPARKS INTERNSHIP

The maiden Brightsparks Internship Program was conceptualised as part of the G20 YEA Summit 2023 at Delhi India with a simple thought of involving those for whom the entire brainstorming at the summit was being done.

Involving the generation who shall witness and reap whatever strategy, collaboration and thought building transpired at the 2023 summit.

The program saw an overwhelming response where young minds between the age of 13-17 years were asked to submit their profile alongside a 1000 word essay on select topics relating to international diplomacy and social issues of today.

A total of 34 interns were selected from across India and member countries of the alliance. With an aim to enhance skills of the high school students and enrich them with an international exposure, the major topics covered were:

1. Research - Qualitative and quantitative
2. International dialogue and diplomacy
3. Networking and self appraisal
4. Negotiation and team building
5. Thought leadership

The highlight of the internship was an intensive project work which spanned over 3 weeks where interns formed teams and researched through public data which was thereafter validated through dialogues with delegates from 20+ countries participating in the G20 YEA summit.

Trained by scholars, soft skill experts and entrepreneurs, interns delivered presentation on the 5 tracks of the Summit. They attended speaker sessions by nation's top ministers, bureaucrats, international industry leaders and startup founders delivering an experience beyond text books.

The interns participated in the official communique signing and handover ceremony which further helped them understand how the International stage is set for collaboration amongst nations contributing World's majority GDP.

Yi organising team had a great experience and took back some great compliments from the interns, their parents and delegates who engaged with the interns.

The program encourages Young Indians as a group to organise more such internship with focus on value delivery to all stakeholders and build a strong pool of future leaders.

INTERNATIONAL BILATERALS - COUNTRY VISITS

3 months prior to the G20 YEA Summit India, the CII - Young Indians international engagement teams took proactive steps to build relationships and promote collaboration between the G20 and non-G20 countries. As a part of this, 10-12 delegations went to other countries to showcase the vision and key takeaways of the summit and invited policy makers, entrepreneurs and social changemakers to visit India for the summit. The delegation visited Saudi Arabia & UAE, UK, South Africa and Mexico.

COMMUNIQUÉS SIGNING

The G20 YEA communiqué was signed at the G20 Young Entrepreneurs' Alliance Summit India 2023 at New Delhi, India in the presence of the 530 delegation from G20 and invitee countries. The delegation was addressed by Mr. Amitabh Kant - the second chief executive officer of NITI Aayog, a public policy think tank of the Government of India. The communiqué was signed by the presidents of the G20 nations present at the event and digitally handed over to Mr. Kant.

The communiqués signing marked a significant milestone in global cooperation and economic coordination amongst the youth entrepreneurship leaders from the G20 countries. The summit brought together the world's young entrepreneurs and policy makers to address pressing challenges and explore collaborative solutions.

The communiqué for 2023-24 highlighted issues around the following tracks:

- Innovation, Digitization and Future of Work
- Inclusion & Equal Opportunities
- Sustainability, Climate & Energy

LEADERSHIP ASSEMBLY
